Peace Corps Use Studied

Assignment at Home Labeled Possibility

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says the Peace Corps he has proposed may serve on the home front as well as abroad.

"One of the matters which we are now studying," Kennedy said, "is how we could use Americans who desire to serve in our own country—slum areas, in education retraining and all the rest."

"We are now attempting to see how we can use this reservoir of talent and desire here in our own country as well as abroad."

The President's comments were recorded at the White House during a television discussion with Eleanor Roosevelt. The program was televised Sunday.

R. Sargent Shriver, the President's brother-in-law who was appointed director of the Peace Corps Saturday, also appeared on the TV program. He said proposals to have Peace Corps members work in settlement houses as part of their training for overseas service was being discussed.

Other corps officials said no decision had been made on the suggestion, one of many being considered.

Shriver said he wanted every American who desires to serve in the corps to have a chance to volunteer. Kennedy has said he hopes to have 500 to 1,000 young men and women in service around the world by the end of the year.

Volunteers will serve two or three years without pay, except for living allowances and perhaps a severance allotment. They will go to countries where they are needed and wanted and work particularly on teaching, health and agriculture.

Overseas reaction included this comment from an educator in Nigeria—where only 15 per cent of the population is literate: "Teachers, and more teachers is what we need most urgently. If America can supply some through its Peace Corps scheme we are wide open to consider any plan which has no strings attached."

9 Airmen Killed

As Big Tanker Falls

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—An Air Force KB50 refueling airplane crashed just short of a Biggs Air Force Base runway Sunday night killing all nine men aboard.

The six-engine craft crashed with a tremendous explosion in an unpopulated area two to three miles northeast of a runway at the base.

The plane was one of six returning from a routine refueling mission in the Pacific.

The wreckage was scattered over a half mile area.

An official Air Force inquiry was started to determine why the airplane crashed. The Air Force withheld the names of the seven crew members and two maintenance men on the plane.

Local Man Seriously Hurt In Collision on Route 23

Thorington P. Plummer Jr., 34, of 132 Park Place, was seriously injured in a two-car crash at 3:12 p. m. yesterday on Route 23 about three miles south of Circleville.

State Highway Patrolmen from Post 65 said Plummer suffered a possible fractured skull, lacerations of the ear and other head injuries.

The local man was rushed to Berger Hospital for emergency treatment, then transferred to University Hospital, Columbus. He was reported in "serious" condition.

The other auto was operated by Jack E. Castleberry, 25, Columbus.

He and the passengers in his car were not injured.

STATE Patrolmen said Plummer, employed at the local DuPont plant, was pulling onto Route 23, headed for Circleville. The Castleberry car was traveling north.

Investigation disclosed the Castleberry auto struck Plummer's small car in the rear, pushing it across a ditch and partly into a wheat field. According to witnesses, Plummer was underneath the vehicle. Patrolmen said it was raining at the time of the accident.

Officers said the Plummer car was demolished. The Castleberry auto was extensively damaged, they added.

Scioto River Is Up to 13.8 Feet

The Scioto River here at noon had risen 6 1/2 inches since 7:30 a. m. today. The official reading at 12:30 p. m. was 13.80 feet.

State highway officials reported that state route 762 was lacking about a foot of covering the highway. Water already covers a large portion of low ground near the Scioto River.

Farmers were warned today that it would be wise to remove livestock and farm equipment which may be housed in the bottom-lands bordering the Scioto and other larger streams.

Similar warnings were issued to people living in the lowland areas close to the Scioto and larger creeks.

Pistol-Packin' Blonde Holds Up U.S. President — Only Briefly

WASHINGTON (AP)—A pistol-packing blonde held up the President of the United States, but no one seemed to mind, especially Washington newsmen and photographers.

Packing the pistol Sunday was Caroline Kennedy, 3. She had it with her as she and the President rode from the White House on a warm, springlike morning.

President Kennedy was on his way to church; Caroline was on her way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smith, her aunt and uncle. Mrs. Smith is the President's sister, Jean.

After Mass, the chief executive drove by the Smith's house to pick up Caroline. Down the steps she pranced, wearing a light blue jumper suit, red coat, a clip in her blonde hair.

The toy six shooter was still in one hand. Ever the lady, in the other she carried a little purse.

"Hello there," a woman reporter called out.

With a friendly smile, Caroline countered, "What's your name?"

4 Anti-Castro Gunmen Head for Firing Squad

HAVANA (AP)—Four men who fired into a Castro mass meeting Saturday probably will go to the execution wall after trial before a military tribunal, army intelligence sources say.

Firing from a taxicab, the anti-Castro gunmen killed one person and wounded three others in the crowd.

"Helen. What's yours?" "Caroline," the blonde replied. Then, from the long, black White house limousine came the President's voice: "Come on, Caroline."

Caroline came on.

You can hold up the President of the United States just so long.

Ohio Solon Says Child Aid Assured

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Rep. Charles A. Vanik, D-Ohio, predicts Congress will pass aid for children of unemployed workers, an extension of jobless benefits, school construction and scholarship bills and will enact legislation to aid depressed areas.

He gave those views in a speech Sunday night at the eighth annual Roosevelt Day dinner sponsored by the Akron chapter of Americans for Democratic Action.

Vanik said he felt Congress also would pass a minimum wage bill, which he said would be particularly important for Northern cities which face Southern states' competition for industry.

Ohio Assembly Returns to Routine Work

Idle Pay Extender Expected To Be Hit By Governor's Veto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With the explosive jobless benefits issue reduced to a mere fizzle, the Ohio legislature returns to Columbus tonight for its 10th work week with its nose buried in workaday problems.

The unemployment benefits matter is apparently wound up except for the formalities which include House acceptance of the Senate version of the badly scarred, non-emergency measure originally designed to extend benefits for persons who have exhausted their rights and still are out of work.

Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is expected to deliver the final blow to the battered bill with a prompt veto. Republicans don't have the votes to override the governor's objections.

The governor need not hesitate with his veto pen because Congress apparently is ready to approve a benefits extender on a federal level before April 1. The non-emergency GOP bill in Ohio would not be effective until early June.

Republicans would like to see other provisions of the bill become law, but it was those provisions—Democrats term them "restrictive"—that brought on the Democratic opposition which killed off the emergency clause in the bill.

Out of respect for the late Rep. Joseph E. Lady, R-Hardin, whose funeral was held today in Kenton, the House scheduled only a skeleton session tonight and will begin the work week Tuesday, a day later than usual.

That delay will postpone House acceptance of Senate changes in the unemployment pay bill until Tuesday.

THE awards were presented by Ohio Jaycee president J. A. Raymond, Painesville, before a luncheon gathering of 300 Jaycees from 187 Ohio Communities. Charles E. Shearer, past National Jaycee President, addressed the group.

During the weekend meeting the Ohio Jaycees approved a statewide program for 1961-62 with emphasis on community development, youth activities, rural - urban affairs, individual development, health and safety, international relations and religious activities.

The organization also passed a resolution urging passage of House Joint Resolution Number 22, now before Ohio's 164th General Assembly. The measure would ratify a U. S. Constitutional Amendment granting residents of the District of Columbia the right to vote in national presidential elections.

County Road Is Declared Through-way

The Pickaway County Commissioners today declared the Kingston - Adelphi Road (Pickaway-Ross County line road) to be a through highway.

According to Charles Morris Jr. there has been some dispute as to the responsibility of placing traffic signs at the intersection of Wolfe Road and the County Line Road.

Ross County Commissioners have declared the road to be a through road and all abutting roads on it, in Ross County, are considered as "stop roads".

As a result of today's session all roads abutting the Kingston - Adelphi Road in Pickaway County, will be considered as "stop roads".

The Board of Commissioners also directed County Engineer Henry T. McCrady to purchase and erect stop signs at the intersection of Wolfe Road and the Kingston-Adelphi Road.

Stock Mart Prices Retain Higher Edge

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market maintained a higher edge early this afternoon despite some sharp profit taking. Trading was heavy.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .40 at 241.40 with industrials up .70, rails up .60 and utilities down .20. Gains of key stocks were mainly fractional but here and there some of the pivotal issues jumped more than a point. Small losers crept into the list at an increasing rate.

Steels turned mixed after an early advance. Motors kept most of their slightly higher trend. Tobacco, nonferrous metals and rails were higher on balance. Utilities and chemicals were off.

Texaco, Eastman Kodak and General Electric gained a point each. Slight losses were shown by American Telephone, DuPont, Union Carbide, Allied Chemical, Chesapeake & Ohio and Johnson & Johnson. Polaroid dropped more than 3. Texas Instruments and Litton Industries dropped 1 each. Brunswick and International Business Machines added about 2.

Volume for the first two hours was 2.17 million shares compared with 2.25 million Friday.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.33 at 672.90.

Corporate bonds were irregularly higher in heavy trading. U.S. governments edged higher in quiet dealings.

French Give Up Bases

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — The French government has agreed to give up all but one of its air bases in Morocco before Oct. 1 two years ahead of schedule.

Ohio Assembly

will get its first chance in more than a decade to vote on ratification of an amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The proposed 23rd Amendment would give District of Columbia residents the right to vote for president. Expected House approval will send the ratification question to the Ohio Senate.

The House plans a vote Wednesday on a Republican-sponsored bill to take the $15-million-a-year cost of operating the Department of Highway Safety out of tax money produced by gasoline taxes. This would release the same amount of money from motor vehicle license fee funds for distribution to counties, municipalities and townships to help meet their highway and street costs.

Gov. DiSalle opposes the shift because, he contends, it would rob the State Highway Department of funds needed for 90-10 matching of federal funds on the interstate highway system now abuilding. But Republican House Speaker Roger Cloud contends the Highway Department still would have plenty of money left for matching and other construction needs.

The House Finance Committee has four hearings scheduled as it continues its study of the $2 billion appropriations bill to run the state the next two years.

Among other bills up for hearing is one outlawing criminal conspiracies, a measure similar to one asked by DiSalle two years ago which passed the House but died in a Senate committee.

Listen, Man, Cats the Same Everywhere, Satchmo Says

NEW YORK (AP) — Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong, back home after six months abroad, today summed up his triumphal concert tour of Europe and Africa:

"Listen, man. Cats are the same everywhere—all over the world. They all talk the same language. They all dig me and my horn."

America's jazz ambassador-at-large sat cross-legged in an easy chair in the Fifth Avenue office of Joe Glaser, president of Associated Booking Corp., and reminisced: "Man, they even declared peace in the Congo fighting the day I showed up in Leopoldville. Them cats there and me really had a ball."

Armstrong, who will be 51 next July 4, looked trim, fit and happy. "Louie, you sure look great," said Glaser, who has been Satchmo's personal agent and manager for 36 years.

Armstrong's eyes flashed and his ear-to-ear smile opened the curtain on gleaming white teeth. Armstrong poked a finger in his mouth. "I feel great, now I got my bad tooth all fixed up."

A molar had troubled him for several weeks. He had seen a dentist in Frankfurt, Germany, but the pain persisted. It's all right now.

"One night," he recounted, "I was really bearing down. And man that tooth really hit a high one. You should have heard my horn howl. I re-a-l-l-y hit a high one, too. Man. The cats really loved it."

Armstrong spent 14 weeks in Africa. The rest of the six months was spent touring Europe. His tour of Africa was sponsored by the U.S. State Department.

The response was the same everywhere he went. In Satchmo's own words: "They treated me like a king. Wherever I went, I'd hear the crowds shouting 'Satchmo.'"

How did you find the mood of the African people, Armstrong was asked.

"I don't have no time for politics," he answered. "I just blow my horn. I just go to try and give people some pleasure."

Republicans Run Assembly But DiSalle Has Last Word

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Majority Republicans make it clear they are running the 104th Legislature without Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's help.

But his veto power gives the Democratic chief executive the last word on most matters concerning his administration and party campaign strategy.

The unexpected death of Rep. Joseph E. Lady, Kenton, left Republicans one short of enough votes to override a veto in the house. In the senate, the GOP has only enough votes to pass legislation, four short of the three-fifths needed to override.

Democrats set the stage for DiSalle's first veto of the session by uniting in both houses to strike an immediately effective emergency clause from a GOP-sponsored bill to extend jobless benefits a month ahead of Congress.

Solid minority opposition could not prevent passage of the extension as a regular bill that becomes effective 90 days after enactment. The measure is expected to reach DiSalle's desk after House approval of Senate changes in permanent unemployment compensation laws to which Democrats objected.

"The Governor has indicated that he will veto this bill when it reaches his desk," said Rep. William W. Milligan, R-Shelby, a co-sponsor.

"It is my hope that he will reconsider this position and approve a measure, which in all fairness, should be considered a constructive and moderate approach to the difficult problem of extensions and qualifications."

The plea can be expected to fall on deaf ears. Members of both parties have termed action on the legislation political. Some said the surprisingly solid Democratic opposition stemmed from a desire to get an effective 1962 election campaign issue like that of right-to-work in 1958.

Spurred by the Ohio AFL-CIO, Democrats voted against the wanted benefit extension on grounds that other permanent changes made it unacceptable.

Republican leaders expressed doubt that the quixotic issue could be sold to voters but they may have to wait for election returns to be sure. The outcome also might help affirm or alter a widely-repeated description of DiSalle as Ohio's "best governor and worst politician."

Few challenge DiSalle's executive ability, regardless of political disagreements. But even members of his own party blame election losses last year on the tax program and other issues enacted by the 1959 Democratic-controlled legislature at his insistence.

The Governor called the shots last session but Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, says the voters entrusted that job to the Republicans this session.

Mechem and House Speaker Roger Cloudy, R-Logan, have yet to take DiSalle up on his offer to meet with them weekly as he still does with Democratic legislative leaders.

Hardly a cabinet meeting passes without an admonition to watch for legislative action on administration-sponsored bills and other measures affecting state departments.

Rankin M. Gibson, DiSalle's legal aide, began prodding directors many months ago for proposals they felt desirable. He repeatedly urges them to keep him closely informed on their progress.

"Let somebody in this office know what we are lobbying for or against," he directed.

Gibson and the Governor made it clear that efforts would be focused on legislation affecting administration programs and activities.

Pending in the Republican-controlled legislature are bills to abolish or change departments created at DiSalle's behest two years ago when Democrats dominated the General Assembly. Other proposals would alter powers of the Governor and his agents.

Concerning bills opposed by the administration, Gibson told cabinet members: "I don't know whether we could stop them but we will try."

DiSalle asked directors to pool their efforts. "Work together on these things," he told them. "If a bill affecting your department is not moving, let us know and we

Half-Million-Dollar Church Building Starts

The cornerstone for the $500,000 church was laid four years ago.

Jurist Says U.S. Policy Out of Step

CLEVELAND (AP) — Justice William O. Douglas says the tragedy of the last 15 years is that the United States has resisted the drives of underprivileged nations for equality and independence.

"We've been out of step — we haven't been on the same wave length as the people of the world," he asserted. "We were defenders of the status quo."

In many respects, Douglas contended, U.S. foreign policy has made us "look upon every nationalist movement as suspect." He expressed the view the Kennedy administration would return to political action and recognition of the nationalist movements in the world.

Earlier, in an interview, Douglas said the response to President Kennedy's peace corps proposal was "tremendous." He called the program a start in the endeavor to aid underdeveloped nations.

"Since the end of World War II," Douglas said, "we have wasted time thinking we could fight communism with guns, airplanes and dollars."

OLD MAN WINTER PLAYED ROUGH THIS YEAR... yet not one sign of trouble on the modern concrete streets!

Every year you hear it: Concrete comes through again! No "spring break-up!" No craters waiting there for the patching crews to repair. No potholes, ruts and washouts to jounce your car and batter your tires.

Rigid and solid instead of soft and flexible—concrete bridges the spongy ground softened by spring thaws—and resists the "frost boils" that push through thinner, weaker road surfaces.

Year after year—all year long—concrete gives you the smoothest ride ever. It's the one pavement that can be precisely designed to match future traffic loads, stay smooth-riding and safe for 50 years and more. And upkeep costs stay low the year around. Write for free literature.

No Need for Space Panic

Scientists the world around regard the Soviet achievement of sending a rocket to probe the vicinity of the planet Venus as a major accomplishment in the field of space exploration.

For centuries — in fact, ever since man first realized that the stars were other planets and suns — human beings have wondered and dreamed about what might be "out there." Now the first efforts to find out are on the verge of success.

Yet there is no reason for Americans to become panicky, for any real knowledge of Venus or Mars or other planets will not come overnight — the U. S. will have plenty of time to get in the act.

The Soviets put this rocket on its path toward Venus only eight days after launching an orbiting spaceship capable of carrying a man. The latter could well have military uses that would cause the free world much trouble.

Yet a desire to get the first man into space should not make us careless of human life. Every safety precaution possible must be taken before an astronaut attempts the long journey toward the stars. Even at the risk of being second best.

Girls Marrying Younger Now

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

American girls are marrying younger than ever. The chances are 96 in 100 that a girl married between 16 and 20 will have a baby. If she waits to 30 or 35, the chances are only 85 out of 100.

The price of civilization is headaches. The average American now gulps 114 aspirins a year. It has been estimated that traveling people. Every day some 3½ million Americans are on an overnight trip taking them at least 100 miles away from home.

What sound most sets your nerves on edge? The most annoying sound to men, a survey found, was that made by scraping a saucer with a knife.

Hoover Attacks Are Hidden

By George Sokolsky

J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI, was reappointed by President Kennedy and so far as anyone knows, he intends to remain on the job. However, "The Insider's Newsletter," says that some Washington "insiders" predict that Hoover will be out of the top FBI job by summer.

A direct inquiry brought no confirmation of such a prediction but one can always wait for a summer to come. Hoover has given 40 years of his life to the FBI and undoubtedly expects to give more years.

Why is it that the rumor is so often spread that J. Edgar Hoover will resign, when it is quite well known that he will not resign but could, of course, be dismissed by his chief, the Attorney - General. Hoover is not likely to make it easy for anyone by resigning because he does not choose to risk the integrity of the FBI by making it easy for anyone to use it politically.

The day must come when Hoover will not be able to continue in his job, for such a time comes to all men unless they die with their boots on. When that day comes, it would be J. Edgar Hoover's hope that his successor might be a person in the FBI and not some politician who could use this mighty agency of government to the disadvantage of the American people.

Whenever it has been proposed that the FBI be expanded into a national police force, Hoover has opposed it. He has also opposed amalgamating the FBI with the Secret Service, the Bureau of Narcotics, the investigative agencies of the Immigration Service and State Department, because it has always been his theory of operations that the only way to protect the people from the Gestapo-like organization is to limit its functions.

There have been times when the FBI was so popular that Hoover could have got any measure through Congress; he avoided expansion beyond efficiency as he avoided becoming an independent agency outside the Department of Justice.

Whereas, in the past, there have been direct attacks on J. Edgar Hoover, the current campaign is more subtle. It is devoted to creating an atmosphere of imminent departure.

It is like suggesting that a man is about to die or is really dead already. It starts out with the assumption that a man is too old, that he ought to retire, or will soon retire.

It is like the propaganda a year or so ago that Justice Felix Frankfurter was retiring and a number of judges and lawyers put themselves in noticeable positions with the hope that the spotlight might fall on them. Frankfurter fooled them all. He just stayed on and said nothing.

It was like that with Vice - Admiral Hyman Rickover. All sorts of plots were devised to end his days in the Navy. It was not planned for him to resign, rather he was to be passed over so that he would no longer be there. It was such a simple plan. But Congress took a hand at that one. The scheme fell short of its purpose and the United States has its fleet of atomic submarines which would not succeed in building.

So it is now with J. Edgar Hoover. There are some who are anxious for him to retire and to have some outsider, perhaps someone whose "green file" would make startling reading, chosen in his place. They spread this report that he is on bad terms with Robert Kennedy, the Attorney - General, who is Hoover's chief.

Robert Kennedy is an astute man who has had long service in the investigative functions of Congress. He knew his way around the FBI before he became Attorney-General. Thus far, he has avoided any political mistakes or getting involved in a controversy with Congress.

It is not likely that he will fall for the scheming and plotting which always go on in Washington as they do in every world capital. For to dismiss J. Edgar Hoover would start such a fracas as no one needs; surely not a person with political ambitions and political sense. Those who hopefully speculate on the prospect of Hoover's resignation have, I fear, been talking to the wrong insiders.

But then that is so generally true in any capital, particularly Washington, where the real insiders are those who work on the job rather than at a cocktail party.

Letter to The Editor

Dear Sir: "In the near future Circleville will be witnessing the construction of a new school and additions to one of the existing ones. As we all know, the money to finance this construction will come from the taxpayers of this community.

"Therefore, it is imperative that the labor - force, both skilled and common, be drafted from this community and from those who are paying the bill for this new construction.

"I will go a little farther by saying that it is obligatory for those in charge of these projects to see that the local labor-pool be tapped at the instigation of this construction.

"In the past very little consideration has been given to the obligation of utilizing local people on these public projects, therefore, I think it is time that the taxpayers of Circleville let it be known how they feel in this matter."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

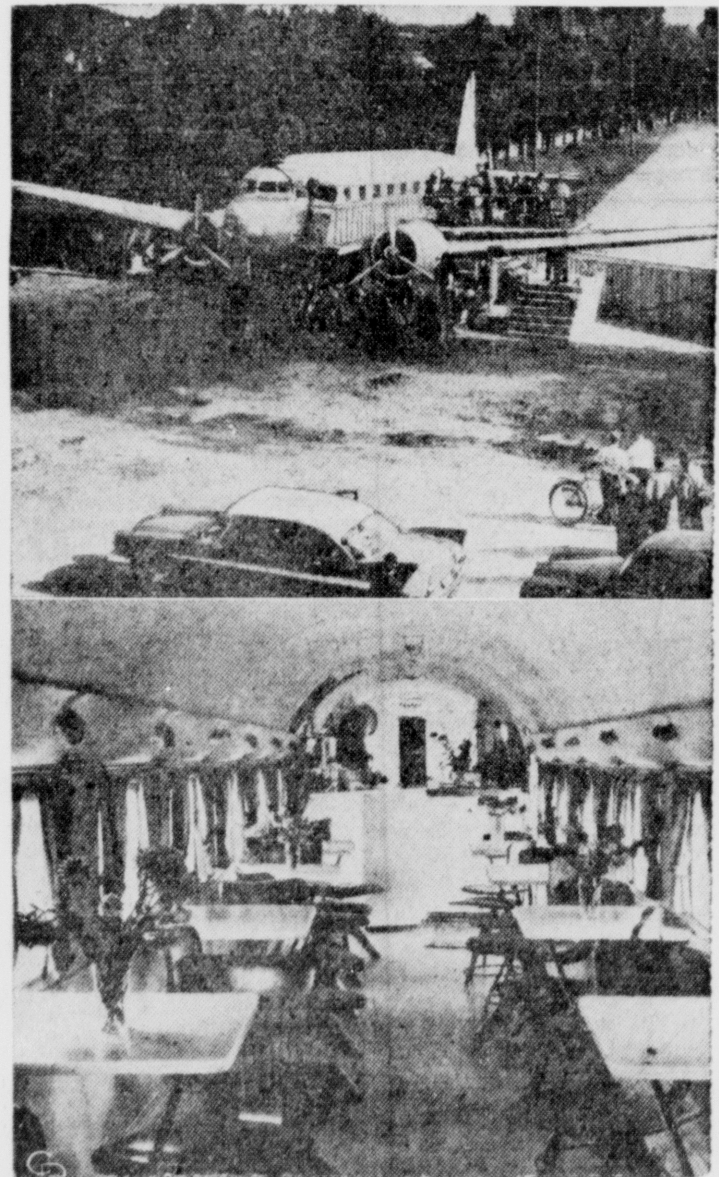

A TALE OF the early West concerns the man who arrived in Texas driving a two-wheeled cart harnessed to a pair of mountain lions. The man was heavily bearded, had a couple of big six-shooters jammed into his belt, and had a bowie knife protruding from his boot. On the seat beside him snarled a wildcat, and for a whip, the stranger brandished a live rattlesnake.

After ordering and tossing down a gallon of sulfuric acid, this wild-eyed stranger was asked where he hailed from.

"Oklahoma," he grunted. "Things was getting so disorderly there all us sissies had to get out."

'MIRACLE'—The crash of an Air Force tanker into a suburban subdivision just north of Mount Clemens, Mich., killed the five crewmen aboard, but it was a "miracle" that no one on the ground was even injured, local officials said. The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP) — Bouncing phone calls off space balloons, throwing a railroad switch miles away, or beaming data between computers far apart, is done with tiny radio waves.

These and many other uses of microwaves are opening up fast now for all kinds of private business. A race is on among electronic equipment makers for the growing market.

The microwave industry already had been booming while sales were mostly limited to government defense and space projects and to the communications industry.

Equipment makers say annual sales are around $2 billion and just hitting their stride in the earthbound phase of the business. Space balloons or satellites could increase microwave usage and range many fold, both for public or private communication.

Private business got a go-ahead signal last fall when the Federal Communications Commission relaxed licensing of microwave systems.

"Microwaves will grow along with communication, automation, computers and central data processing," says Henry Feldman, head of FXR Inc., which began turning out equipment and testing instruments in 1944 in Woodside, N. Y. It expanded its plant in 1959 and again in 1960 and now is doubling its present size.

"Microwaves are a growing factor in those twins of modern business, communication and control, whether reporting a hotbox on a rail car or turning a valve in an oil refinery," he adds. His firm specializes in precision devices to tell just what microwaves are doing as they vibrate a billion times a second.

In the field of space both American Telephone & Telegraph and Radio Corporation of America are offering their own projects to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

These involve either a string of satellites to be used in turn by ground stations as they pass by, or a few that are stationary in the sense of orbiting at the same speed at which the earth moves. At present the balloon Echo I is being used for transcontinental conversations.

On the earth about 30 per cent of cross country phone calls already travel by microwave repeaters.

And Western Union is putting millions of dollars into a system of reflector towers that can carry 2.4 million words a minute in either direction.

The microwave, on frequencies of 1,000 to 20,000 megacycles, takes a very narrow beam that can be aimed precisely at small targets. Speech is imposed upon "carrier" waves flashed like light from one reflector tower to the next. At their destination the beams are reconverted into speech. Thousands of microwave messages can be carried in the space allotted to an ordinary radio channel.

Private businesses using the system are railroads, pipelines, utilities, turnpikes (for traffic control), TV stations, truck lines, orange growers, paper producers, airports and missile makers.

By opening blocks of new microwave frequencies to private users, the FCC is in effect offering business firms the chance to set up their own private lines in the sky. But this is more economical than leased telephone lines only if they have enough usage to equal five or more such voice channels.

New Signs Point to Upturn Ahead for Nation's Business

NEW YORK (AP)—Is business on the verge of turning the corner? The consensus, based on hopes and faint signs, seems to be that the economy is approaching an upturn.

But few feel that the magic moment has arrived.

President Kennedy said last week: "I think it would be premature to make a judgment that our economy is on the rise."

He added that he was "hopeful that we will see the economy move up in the spring and summer."

The President has told leading Democrats that he is depending on an improvement in the economy to hold next year's budget deficit to $1.5 billion.

However, the Commerce Department released figures which Kennedy said "do not indicate that an upturn is taking place as yet." These statistics showed decreases in industrial production and personal income in January.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges said business should be better in the spring, and reported that big business men indicate a better feeling about economic prospects.

Executives of three big mutual investment funds came out with statements that they believe the stage is being set for a business recovery.

Economists saw scattered indications of business improvement, including better automobile and department store sales and some firming in steel orders.

Here's how these segments of the economy shaped up:

Automobile dealers delivered 116,950 cars in the Feb. 11-20 period for an average of 14,618 in each of the period's eight selling days. This was up 11 per cent from the 13,187-a-day sales rate in the first third of February. A survey indicated sales may have improved 13 per cent in the final third of February.

The production rate, however, was not bright. Output this week was estimated at 92,000, compared with 100,457 last week. Dealers' inventories still are near a record level.

In February the industry built the fewest cars for any February since 1952 — 362,265, compared with 659,298 in February 1960. The March outlook is bleak with about 400,000 cars scheduled to come off assembly lines, down nearly 40 per cent from the 654,000 built a year ago.

Enjoying good weather for a change, retail merchants chalked up a gain of two to six per cent in dollar volume this week over the comparable 1960 week.

Steel production last week held steady at the eight-month high of 1,582,000 tons. Operations have been staging a small but persistent recovery since the first of the year.

Logan T. Johnston, president of Armco Steel Co., said, "The sky is a little brighter now than it was at the beginning of the year. Very encouraging signs of improvement are the definitely increasing number of inquiries and increasing orders from customers."

But unemployment continued to rise. The total mounted 450,000 to 5.8 million between mid-January and mid-February, four times the normal increase for that period. The number of state-insured unemployed increased to a new high of 3,390,600.

Cocktails on Moon

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — "Throw a couple rocks in the pot and let's have a drink."

This may well be the way lunar-based spacemen of the future will concoct a moon cocktail.

Dr. Roy G. Brereton, a space age thinker for Aerojet - General Corp., reports his studies convince him that certain kinds of rock, known to contain as high as 5 per cent water, can be found on the moon.

"To get the water out of the rock for drinking," Brereton says, "will require a source of great heat. A mirror could be used to focus the sun's heat to the needed temperature, about 1,500 degrees centigrade. "This heat would be directed to a vat, or huge pan, in which the rocks were placed. When the water in the rocks got hot enough, it would rise in the form of steam. A dome would catch the steam and let it condense and drip off as useable water."

Deep sea worms called pogonophores are so unusual that biologists have set up a special biological classification for them.

The government took these actions to get President Kennedy's antirecession program rolling.

The House passed a $1 billion emergency unemployment aid bill.

The House Labor Committee approved a two-step minimum wage increase from $1 to $1.25.

The Senate Banking Committee approved a bill to provide $400 million in loans and grants to depressed areas.

The Post Office Department acted to speed postal construction by authorizing $270 million in spending.

Volume on the New York Stock Exchange soared to 27,102,906 shares from 20,696,610 shares in the prior four-day trading week (shortened by Washington's Birthday) and was the highest for any week since the one ended July 22, 1933, when 42,329,633 shares changed hands.

Bond volume totaled $43,364,000 compared with $29,026,000 for the previous holiday week.

Briefly around the business scene: The cost of living edged downward in January for the first time in 12 months, mainly because of lower prices for clothing, food and used cars. . . . The United States will open trade centers throughout the free world to promote exports. . . . The New York state petroleum council reports the average passenger car uses 667 gallons of gasoline and 24 quarts of oil a year. . . . Life insurance companies' real estate holdings are nearing the $4 billion mark. . . . A seat on the New York Stock Exchange sold for $175,000, highest since 1934. . . . Westinghouse Electric Co. received an order for a $20 million, 325,000 kilowatt steam-electric power plant from Kansai Electric Power Co. of Japan.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy warned in his inaugural address that people riding tigers wind up inside. He has been riding a lamb himself, a kind President Dwight D. Eisenhower invented.

It was a time of raw nerves when Eisenhower took office. There was frustration over the Korean War, anger over the advance of communism which had taken China, suspicion and division from McCarthyism and open brawling between President Harry S. Truman and the Republicans.

Eisenhower restored some national calmness. His greatest contribution may have been his avoidance of name-calling, personal attacks and the appearance of exasperation.

His continued popularity showed the country appreciated calmness and wanted to keep it. It was a lesson the politicians could not overlook.

It was no wonder that in the 1960 campaign Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon kept their efforts on a fairly high plane. The one who tried otherwise might have been swamped in the returns.

Many voters, consciously or not, may have picked Kennedy because, except for his Catholicism he was a noncontroversial figure while Nixon had been in controversy most of his political life.

Kennedy is continuing what he did in the campaign: presenting calmness. He is handing Congress controversial programs while remaining noncontroversial himself.

By avoiding harshness, he has deprived his opponents of ammunition. He has concentrated all arguments on the issues without letting them get tangled in personalities.

In the meantime he is getting across to the public, which can

No Open House For A-Sub Rites

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—A new Polaris missile submarine, the Abraham Lincoln, will be commissioned March 11 in dock-side ceremonies, but only invited guests can attend.

The Navy, announcing the date, said there will be no open house, as is customary.

A pacifist group, the New England Committee for Non-Violent Action, has announced plans to conduct a demonstration for disarmament.

The new submarine, nuclear powered, will be the fifth fleet Polaris weapon ship to go into commission.

She is 380 feet long and displaces 5,400 tons. Her missiles have a range of 1,200 miles.

PC Garden Club Discusses Color in Garden and Yard

Pickaway County Garden Club staged its first meeting of the year Friday night in the Presbyterian Church.

The program entitled "Color the Year Around" was presented by Mr. Warrick, of the Warrick Nurseries, Columbus.

Landscape gardening, which has been a hobby of Mr. Warrick's for the past 35 years, holds a honorary degree in horticulture at Ohio State University.

He showed slides on "What you should have in your garden and yard to have color the year around."

Mr. Warrick stated that people should throw away their color charts and let judgement be their guide.

He suggested different shades of yellow and white for color and emphasized that almost anything will thrive in Pickaway County soil.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. S. G. Measamer. Mrs. Warrick presented a sequentennial cookbook by the club.

Mrs. Charles Thompson, exhibit committee, reported on the series of beginners' workshops sponsored by the club.

Containers, materials, designs, triangle and vertical arrangements, rhythm, color and design, how to interpret flower show schedules, and hogarth curves and table arrangements were the topics covered at the six workshops.

Regular workshops for members will be held each Tuesday following the monthly business meeting. Tomorrow night at 8 p. m. the workshop will be held in the home of Mrs. Donald Archer, 888 N. Court St.

Japanese and Oriental arrangements will be the topic. Members will bring flat containers, line materials and rocks.

Mrs. Theodore Huston, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported that several cookbooks may still be purchased from garden club members.

Mrs. Measamer announced that invitations had been received to attend the Indoor-Outdoor Flower Show at Veterans Memorial, Columbus, March 16-20.

At 2 p. m. March 21 Mrs. E. E. Wenderly, Lake Wood, will present the program "Simplicity of

CUT DOWN

DEAR CUT: Don't lock horns in public. When you are alone together and she is in a good mood, explain that even though you might be telling it wrong, she should keep quiet. Your friends will forgive a man who butchers a story, but not a woman who cuts up her husband.

DEAR ABBY: I made a terrible mistake when I told my neighbor I could sew. She started bringing over all her things for me to alter. At the beginning I didn't mind—but when she started bringing me her children's clothes to alter and repair, I think she went too far. I am not hard up, but if she wants me to be her tailor don't you think she should pay me for it? Yesterday she brought over a bottle of dime store cologne and said, "Here is a little token of my appreciation. I wouldn't insult you by offering you money." What should I do? I'd rather have her for a friend than an enemy.

STUCK FOR WORDS

DEAR STUCK: She will pile the work on you as long as you let her. Sewing is a respectable craft. Tell her you would not regard two dollars an hour as an "insult." If your friendship comes apart at the seams, don't fret.

DEAR ABBY: Nine years ago I married a girl I didn't love because she talked me into it and I didn't have the heart to back out. We have three beautiful children who mean the world to me. I have grown to respect and admire my wife, but I don't love her.

A few months ago I bumped into an old schoolmate. Before I knew it we were having lunch together. She's a widow and works

Ever give chocolate cake a mint topping? Bake the cake batter in a square pan and place chocolate peppermint patties over the surface when you take it out of the oven. Return cake and patties to the oven for several minutes, then spread the softened peppermint chocolate evenly.

Kitchen Arithmetic: You can add 1/2 to 1 cup grated cheddar cheese to a medium white sauce.

If you want to broil pork chops make sure they are done all the way through: when a small slit is made near the bone, the meat should look white.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Can You Top This?

DEAR ABBY: I have a reputation for being a pretty good story teller and wherever I go, people ask me, "Have you got any good ones?" I do fine when my wife isn't around. When she is, all I have to do is start telling the story and she butts in with, "You are telling it wrong." Naturally, I get all tied up in knots and can't tell it right. I sometimes say, "All right, then YOU tell it." But this doesn't help because she doesn't really want to tell it. All she wants to do is correct me. How do you handle a wife like that?

DEAR ABBY: I made a terrible mistake when I told my neighbor I could sew. She started bringing over all her things for me to alter. At the beginning I didn't mind—but when she started bringing me her children's clothes to alter and repair, I think she went too far. I am not hard up, but if she wants me to be her tailor don't you think she should pay me for it? Yesterday she brought over a bottle of dime store cologne and said, "Here is a little token of my appreciation. I wouldn't insult you by offering you money." What should I do? I'd rather have her for a friend than an enemy.

STUCK FOR WORDS

DEAR STUCK: She will pile the work on you as long as you let her. Sewing is a respectable craft. Tell her you would not regard two dollars an hour as an "insult." If your friendship comes apart at the seams, don't fret.

DEAR ABBY: Nine years ago I married a girl I didn't love because she talked me into it and I didn't have the heart to back out. We have three beautiful children who mean the world to me. I have grown to respect and admire my wife, but I don't love her.

A few months ago I bumped into an old schoolmate. Before I knew it we were having lunch together. She's a widow and works

Ever give chocolate cake a mint topping? Bake the cake batter in a square pan and place chocolate peppermint patties over the surface when you take it out of the oven. Return cake and patties to the oven for several minutes, then spread the softened peppermint chocolate evenly.

Kitchen Arithmetic: You can add 1/2 to 1 cup grated cheddar cheese to a medium white sauce.

If you want to broil pork chops make sure they are done all the way through: when a small slit is made near the bone, the meat should look white.

Braising pork chops? Top each with a round slice of lemon (unpeeled).

Hot Madison Five Unseats Walnut

Walnut's cage Tigers Saturday night ran headlong into a redhot Madison South five which roared to an 80-45 victory in district tournament play at Granville.

The Madison South unit, one of the top seeded teams in the tournament, hit with extreme accuracy from outside to jolt the fighting Tigers. The Madison County champs broke away early, taking a 24-12 lead in the first quarter and increasing it to 40-24 at halftime.

A similar display of hot shooting prevailed in the third frame as the winners rolled on for a 60-32 advantage as the period ended.

A siege of illness to Walnut ace Tom Harber hurt the Tigers' chances from the outset. The sharpshooter missed practice most of last week after coming down sick.

BILL HOOVER carried a major share of the load and did it in fine style by coming through with 19 points, high for the game.

Another problem facing the Tigers was Madison South's sticky pressing defense which started to take a toll about midway in the opening quarter. The Madison cagers pilfered the ball twice within about 15 seconds to shove them off to an 18-10 lead.

Until this time, Walnut was very much in the game. A few minutes earlier the Tigers had led, 6-5, when Harber swished one from the side.

However, the picture started to change when Madison applied the pressure in the backcourt. Walnut had trouble getting the ball up the floor and MS started to hit with regularity.

Hoover kept the Tigers in the game early in the second quarter as he hit three straight buckets, then Harber did the same to account for all 12 of Walnut's points in the frame. But Madison South collected 16 in the stanza, with jumpshot specialist Ronnie Daniels getting six of them.

Harber finished second in scoring for Walnut with 11 points. The ace cager also was handcuffed early when he drew his third personal with 4:55 left in the first quarter. This forced him into a cautious defensive role.

MIKE NEFF, coming into the game as a replacement, ripped eight points for the Tigers on three buckets and two foul shots.

Madison South took advantage of a balanced attack, with four players hitting 13 points or better. High scoring Carl Whitaker led the way with 18. Daniels whipped the nets for 15, Jim Hill 14 and Rick Renick 13.

Walnut was able to hold Whitaker in the early stages with a tight zone, but most of the trouble came when Daniels and Hill started to hit from outside.

Ashville, Pickaway County's other representative in the district, will get a crack at the same Madison outfit Wednesday at Granville. The game is scheduled to start at 7 p. m. Second game of the evening will pit Columbus St. Mary's against Millerport.

A second game Saturday night saw Amanda-Clearcreek drop a heart crusher to St. Mary's, 59-58. The game was won on two foul shots in the final seconds.

Mudcat Grant Set for 15 Victories

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Jim (Mudcat) Grant, 25-year-old "dean" of the Cleveland pitching staff, has set his goal for the coming baseball season at 15 victories.

Grant, who made 19 starts last year, commented Sunday: "If they started me as much as some of the other pitchers I'd win more. Guys like (Warren) Spahn get 40 starts. Give me 40 starts and I bet I would win 20."

With a rookie record of 10-11, Grant followed with 10-7 and 9-8 records. He has looked great at times.

Two years ago with former manager Joe Gordon threatening to send him to the minors and with the Indians leading the league by two games, Grant pitched a great game. He beat the New York Yankees in 14 innings 5-4 and went the distance on a hot June day.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — With the conference championships decided, and only five scheduled games left to play, Ohio's collegiate basketball campaign is practically over.

Fullmer Seeks Shot at Pender

Defeated Robinson Ponders Future

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer's one good eye was fixed firmly today on Paul Pender's limited version of the 160-pound crown.

Sugar Ray Robinson, his 21-year-career perhaps finished by Fullmer in their nationally televised Donnybrook was glumly considering his future.

Fullmer, his left eye closed tight by a Robinson right, said before leaving for his Utah mink ranch: "I'd like to fight Pender and clear up the muddled middleweight picture. The division should have an undisputed champion."

Norman Rothschild, a co-promoter of Saturday's bloody brawl, said there was a good chance of a Fullmer-Pender title fight in June at the Las Vegas convention center where Fullmer whipped Robinson in their fourth meeting Saturday night.

The Robinson camp was bitterly critical of the battle which destroyed the 40-year-old ex-champion's hopes of regaining the crown for an unprecedented sixth time.

They objected especially to the third round, when Fullmer bombed a dazed and hurt Robinson for several seconds after the bell.

The rugged champion set a furious, wild-swinging pace — but Robinson rallied after his third-round beating and finished the nationally televised 15-rounder slamming toe-to-toe.

The cards gave Fullmer the decision unanimously, but the ring announcement was misunderstood at ringside. For a few chaotic moments, some thought Robinson had won.

The battle was a rich pay day for both fighters. There was a $140,000 gate and $150,000 television money. Fullmer got 40 per cent of the gate and $60,000 of the TV money. Robinson got 25 per cent of the gate and $50,000 television money.

Sam Weller of CHS Named To All-SCO Cage Selection

Sam Weller, Circleville's star cage center, was named to the mythical South Central Ohio League All-Star basketball team yesterday at Washington C.H.

The selection was made by SCO coaches during a meeting at Gardner Fieldhouse. Represented were Circleville, Wilmington, Hillsboro, Greenfield, Franklin Heights, Pleasant View, Miami Trace and host Washington C.H.

Weller was the only Circleville player making the first or second Gahanna Friday when he scored 27 points. He matched the performance of Gahanna's big 6-7 Jim Shaffer although the local ace had three fouls against him early in the contest.

Wilmington, league champions, placed two men on the first selection of six players. Doing the honors for the Hurricane were Jim Kidd and Marv Gregory.

Gregory, a junior and rated one of the best in the league, had a 20.7 average in the loop and Kidd a 19 mark.

John Cummings, Hillsboro's fine cager, and Rodger Grooms, Greenfield's rugged center, were the only unanimous choices on the first unit.

CUMMINGS, a 5-11 junior, ended as the league's top scorer with a 24.5 average. Grooms, also known for their ability on the gridiron, counted a 23.9 average.

Rounding out the first six was Earl Crosswhite, Washington's dangerous outside shooter. He stands 5-10 and holds an average of 15 points per game in league competition.

Named to the second unit were Roger Carper of Franklin Heights, Ron Claiborne of Wilmington, Harold Post of Hillsboro, Bo Henry and Lonnie Ayres of Miami Trace and Ron Stewart of Pleasant View. All are seniors except Ayres.

Circleville was represented at the meeting by Jack Weikert, reserve coach. Mentor Dick Snouffer was unable to attend due to another commitment.

Here are the complete selections:

Lemon Holds Out for Bonus Based on Home Run Output

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Hard-hitting Jim Lemon, who led the club with 38 home runs and 100 runs batted in last season, has tossed this two-pronged problem at Minnesota Twins' President Cal Griffith.

1. He can't be found.
2. He's asking $1,000 a homer to end his holdout siege.

The 35-year-old outfielder received an estimated $24,000 for the 1960 baseball campaign in which he hit .269, and figures he deserves a contract with a pay boost that reflects his slugging talents. The price for his signature is $38,000—a grand per homer.

The president of the former

Pistol-Packin' Robby Shrugs Off Horseplay

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — "I know I'm going to hear wisecracks from the rival benches but they won't bother me."

That was the half-smiling comment Sunday at the Cincinnati Reds' training camp by Frank Robinson, charged with carrying a concealed pistol.

"I'm a happy-go-lucky fellow," he said. "I don't plan to change because of what happened back in Cincinnati."

The Hamilton County grand jury in Cincinnati indicted Robby last Friday on the charge, which carries a prison term of 1-3 years on conviction.

Robinson was due for arraignment in Cincinnati today, but reports were he planned to stay here in spring training unless his attorney cannot win a continuance.

The sturdy outfielder—National League slugging champ last season—drew applause Sunday as a pinch-hitter for pitcher Zack Monroe, driving deep to the outfield to put across the third run of an intra-squad game.

Robinson had to testify before the grand jury on the charge last Tuesday. He didn't get his first workout here until Saturday.

Horseplay about the gun charge started as soon as Robby arrived. As soon as Robinson stepped out of his car, a special police officer, assigned to guard Lopez Field, said with a grin:

"Okay, Robby, draw."

Robinson managed only a feeble grin in return and said, "I'll never get caught carrying even as much as a water pistol again."

OU Cage Pilot Is Coach of Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 1961 Ohio college basketball coach of the year is Jim Snyder of Ohio University whose selection makes up part of the rarest parlay in the history of the award.

Ohio U.'s Bill Hess previously was selected as Ohio college football coach of the year. This marks the first time that both awards have gone to coaches at the same school.

Snyder, 41, coached his Bobcats to their second straight Mid-American Conference championship, despite predictions by the loop's coaches that Ohio U. would finish fourth this season.

Views on Television - Radio

By CYNTHIA Lowry
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"Omnibus," stubbornly dedicated to lifting the TV viewers' sights—well, anyway, the sight of the late Sunday afternoon TV viewers—exposed us to some examples of avant garde, or far out, dramatic fare Sunday.

William Saroyan, a playwright who a few years ago was considered pretty far out himself, was along as a necessary guide for the uninitiated. This was a scene from his own "The Time of Your Life" (1939). It was followed by a rewrite of the scene as it would have been handled by a young playwright today.

The 1939 scene was warm and cozy with happy-go-lucky Joe explaining his harmless philosophy of life to Mary. The 1961 version was also cozy but cold with a nervous Joe and a frenetic Mary yearning to talk to each other but not quite able to achieve communication.

But after that, "Omnibus" got a bit thick. There was a weird bit called the "Killer" by Eugene Ionesco in which a middle-aged man, confronted by a horrible creature with a maniacal giggle, was trying frantically to avoid death. At the end, the killer raised the knife, the middle-aged man collapsed and there was Saroyan, to ask with a chuckle whether the protagonist was destroyed or whether he committed suicide.

Then came another puzzler, "Krapp's Last Tape," by Samuel Beckett. Saroyan explained that we'd understand this better if we consider the tape recordings to be all the world's history and Krapp as a modern man. It really didn't help. Krapp was a mad looking old man, addicted to bananas and alcoholic excesses. When he finally got around to playing the tape-recording, it proved to be utter banality—far from the history of the world, but perhaps that was the point.

Finally, there was a one-act play by Albert Albee, which was so very, very far out that it made absolutely no sense at all to me. It concerned two horrible creatures called mommy and daddy who were putting an old woman in a sandbox to die. I had a curious feeling that it must have been either very funny or very tragic, but I couldn't tell.

Recommended tonight: June Allyson Show, CBS, 10:30-11 (EST)—Ralph Bellamy in "The Haven."

Harsha Reports
Liberals Use
Rules Panel
For Control

By WILLIAM H. HARSHA JR.
Congressman, 6th District

You will recall the argument advanced by the liberals that the Rules Committee should be enlarged to permit the House of Representatives to have an opportunity to vote on all measures.

Just as I predicted, this was not the real reason, behind expanding the Rules Committee.

It is now obvious that one of the reasons for expanding the Committee was to control it, so that the liberal members could dictate the type of legislation that Congress would vote on.

For some time there has been before the Rules Committee a bill to televise and record by radio the activities of the House of Representatives. Congress was denied the right to vote on this bill by the Rules Committee.

The eight liberals voted together against this measure. This points up emphatically the fallacy in the argument advanced by the liberals.

Again, the newly-enlarged committee refused to permit the House to vote on House Resolution 115, a measure which could save the taxpayers millions of dollars. It was a measure to stop so-called back door spending.

THE NEW liberal majority was obstructionist, using its entire eight votes to kill the Resolution preventing the House membership as a whole from expressing its will on this measure.

Then again, one of the reasons I advanced for voting against the expansion was that it would permit the Rules Committee to report bills under a gag or closed rule procedure, not allowing amendments to be made to a bill. This meant that you either had to accept the bill in the form in which it was presented or reject it.

The very first bill that was reported out of the Rules Committee to the Floor of the Congress contained this gag rule. No amendment or extension of the Unemployment Compensation Act of 1961.

Here again, my predictions were accurate and the expansion of the Rules Committee was proposed and accomplished for reasons other than those advanced by Mr. Rayburn and his liberals.

As you undoubtedly know, the House of Representatives overwhelmingly supported the House Committee on Un-American Activities by giving that committee its requested budget for investigations.

I was unalterably opposed to any actions that might have affected that Committee or led to its abolition.

For many years the Communist Party, its front, and action organizations, together with left-wing

The Ashville Community Club met last week for a dinner meeting at a Donaldson's Restaurant. Twenty members were present. The main business of the evening was the naming of the 4th of July committees for the annual celebration to be held July 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Those named to the committees are as follows: Lunch Stand — Wade Canter, Buss Hedges, Charles Messick, Charles Morrison and Harold Bumgardner; Bands — David Kraft; Special Entertainment — Dale Schiff, Steve Cook and Warren Brown; Publicity — Warren Bastian and Ed Irwin; Games — Rolland Featheringham, Dick Brown, Earl Boyer, Lowell Cooper and Paul Chaffin; Parade — Bud Glitt, Felix Dore, Jack Lemon, Robert Bartholomew, Jr. and William Snyder;

Dance — Robert Glick and Kenny Foreman; Vesper Services — the Rev. John Morgan, the Rev. Robert Gruenberg and the Rev. William Carter; Beauty Contest — Richard Bozman, Chester Peters and Robert Bausum; Help Notification — Raymond Lindsey; Night Watchman — Curt Williamson; Aerial Bomb and Prizes — Don Thompson and Boyd Kuhlwein.

A COMMITTEE of Gene Tosca, Heywood Mercer and Charles Morrison was appointed to study a and self-styled liberal organizations have fought to weaken the effectiveness of or abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The great majority of the people of the United States approve the work of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and the contribution the committee has made to the security of our nation.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has said of this committee: "Your committee's role in safe-guarding our freedoms is well known to every patriotic citizen, and real Americans are not going to be fooled or misled by efforts to discredit your vital task."

THE COMMITTEE on Un-American Activities is not dealing here with a parlor game. This is a deadly game. I feel that this committee has done a tremendous job.

The Communist Party is an insidious, tyrannical, godless organization dedicated to one thing — the overthrow of our form of government and to overthrow it by force and violence.

Make no mistake about that, and I am certainly thankful that the House of Representatives, almost unanimously, had the courage to give this committee the backing it so richly deserved.

possibility of holding a raffle on one large item. They will make a report at a latter meeting.

The club donated $100 towards the forming of a Council for Retarded Children here in Pickaway County. Mayor Bozman was on hand to explain the needs of annexing additional land surrounding the village of Ashville. He asked that the club support this with the help of the village council.

The Bastian Funeral Home made the following ambulance runs this past week: Tuesday, February 21 took Jim Martin of Commercial Point to White Cross Hospital and Monday, February 27 took Mrs. Lathan Ditty of Sher-Lin Trailer Court to White Cross Hospital.

A special Lenten Race Relations Program, sponsored by the Ashville Methodist Senior Youth Fellowship in cooperation with the Junior MYF, the South Bloomfield Methodist Youth Fellowship, and the Hedges Chapel Methodist Youth Fellowships, was held Sunday evening in the Ashville Church. This program was open to the public.

Special music was presented by four Frankfort High School students, Betty Ragland, Wendell Petiford, Ronald and Donald Valentine. They sang several spirituals.

FIVE KILLED IN CRASH OF AIR FORCE TANKER—Smoke billows from the wreckage after an Air Force KC97 Stratotanker crashed into a suburban subdivision just north of Mount Clemens, Mich. Five Air Force crewmen died when the tanker, loaded with 6,000 gallons of highly volatile jet fuel, crashed on a busy highway during the evening rush hour. The bouncing plane forced two cars off the highway, demolished one home and missed two others by only 50 yards.
